

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS SPREAD EXCITEMENT THRUOUT LOS ANGELES

Rumors of Horrors Traveled Fast But Little Actual Damage Was Done—Hospitals Are Crowded With Fear Stricken People.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., July 16.—Four severe earthquakes here today threw the city and its suburbs into excitement, indirectly causing a number of injuries to men, women and children and slightly damaged several buildings chiefly old ones, but none to a great extent.

While the shocks seemed to center in Los Angeles, some of them were felt more than thirty miles away but no material damage was reported from any other Southern California city or town.

The quakes felt as does the sudden stopping of a street car operated by an inexperienced motorman, only the unpleasant sensation was multiplied many times.

Excitement, in many cases hysterical, followed the first shock and had hardly been calmed when at 1:17 in the afternoon came the second, followed two minutes later by the third. These two were sharper than that of the morning. The fourth came at 6:13 tonight.

Courts and other public places were scenes of near panic, some people running for the open air, some fainting, some stopping to pray.

While the excitement was at its height rumors of horror travelled fast but when it subsided there was not one report of any extensive damage done to any establishment, while the worst injury recorded was a broken leg caused when a brick fell from the top of a building and struck an elderly man.

Perhaps the greatest clamor came from the prisoners in the county and city jails.

In the former four hundred prisoners felt the morning shock with comparative calm, but became wildly excited at the first of the two in the afternoon. They yelled, shook the bars of their cells and screamed to be taken out. The turnkeys were trying to calm them when the third tremor came. The resultant up- road lasted an hour.

The prisoners in the city jail were less excited altho the building was slightly damaged. Hysteria also overcame several women officers of the police department. For hours the receiving hospital maintained by the city was crowded with women and children, most of whom had fainted in the excitement of the temblors. Private hospitals and emergency hospitals, also were overflowing with hysteria and fainting cases.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 16.—The corn crop in Illinois this year will be approximately 284,125,000 bushels. This estimate was made today by the United States Bureau of Crop Estimates and the State Department of Agriculture. It compares with last year's yield of 301,000,000 and the five year average of 347,537,000 bushels.

Altogether more acres were planted to corn this year than last, the lower yield will be due to the condition of the corn which on July 1 was 79 per cent of normal as against the condition in the entire country of 84.6 per cent.

"The planting of corn was ended in June," says the report.

The stand is generally excellent.

Weather conditions have been ideal for growth. Taken as a whole the crop is nearly four weeks backward and varies greatly in the growth made even in the same locality. Without unusually favorable growing conditions for the rest of the season and a late fall it seems inevitable that much soft corn will be harvested."

Winter wheat improved in condition during the month. Cutting is almost finished in southern Illinois. There are many poor fields and many that will make excellent yields. The Hessian fly and chinch bugs did considerable damage. Generally speaking the quality of the crop is excellent. A crop of more than 28,000,000 bushels seems probable.

Spring wheat, oats and barley have suffered from lack of moisture. Oats and barley are ripening fast all over the state and cutting of oats has started in the south. Indications are for 7,293,000 bushels of spring wheat; 129,024,000 bushels of oats as compared with 123,060,000 bushels last year; 3,328,000 bushels of rye as compared with 4,125,000 bushels in 1919 and 5,632,000 bushels of barley.

Rye is being harvested in south and central areas. The quality is not heavy but the quality is generally good.

The floundering done by the third party advocates in Chicago has not been distasteful to the leaders in either of the old parties. The disagreements in Chicago were such that the movement lacks cohesiveness and so carries no special menace for either Republicans or Democrats.

It is characteristic of the Taft family that there was no great hurrah about the marriage of Helen Taft the other day. It would have been the same kind of wedding if it had occurred in the white house, for neither Mr. Taft nor members of his family are given to display.

The proposal to include Jacksonville within a road district should have wide and careful consideration. To include the city would make possible the raising of a considerable sum thru taxation. Additional road work would be very acceptable. Whether or not the people wish to carry this additional amount of taxation is something for them to consider.

EVEN IN SCOTLAND.

The campaign for prohibition will soon be under full swing in Scotland. The people there will have three proposals to vote on, carrying various degrees of prohibition. Those who have read upon the subject believe that some kind of liquor regulation will be adopted.

Ten years ago to merely refer to Scotland and prohibition in the same breath would have caused a laugh.

RECALL THE COOLIDGE DECLARATION.

Just about two million people were inconvenienced in Chicago by the action of one man, an electrical workers' union agent who without notice called a strike. The electrical workers have such an essential part in the street railway organization of Chicago that the order meant a tieup of transportation. Such a situation, brought about by the action of one man, gives new point to the famous declaration of Gov. Coolidge in connection with the Boston police strike, when he said "There is no right to strike against the public safety by anybody, anywhere, any time."

A BURLESON METHOD.

Representative Frederick Lehrlbach of New Jersey, characterizes as contrary to the spirit of the civil service retirement law, the action of Postmaster General Burleson in removing all employees of the Post Office Department now eligible for retirement. The law was designed for the protection of Government employees by the Republican congress and should not be administered by the method adopted by Mr. Burleson. Representative Lehrlbach declares. "The law was framed with provisions making it possible for the head of a department to continue in service over 65 years of age." Mr. Lehrlbach said recently, "in order that efficient employees might be retained."

ANOTHER COAL CRISIS.

Another crisis exists in the coal supply situation. The survey made by the real estate board in Chicago has shown an actual shortage there. The result has been a spirited competition in bidding for coal at the mines and the inevitable boosting of price levels.

What is true in Illinois also applies to other states and in Indiana the operators have been charging such exorbitant prices that the governor has recommended that the state go into the mining business.

It is not probable that state operation of coal mines would bring the desired relief, but is certain that some sort of control of the coal business must be exercised or the public this winter will be required to meet extravagant costs.

CLEAR ENOUGH

The Democrats say that "We do not oppose the acceptance of any reservations making clearer or more specific the obligations of the United States to the league associates. To the American of even average intelligence the obligations of the United States would assume if it entered the league are perfectly clear without the addition of any further language. The Democratic platform seeks to emphasize those obligations; the Republican platform would cut them out of the covenant, at least so far as they impair American sovereignty.

LESS INTEREST IN SUGAR.

Very little is heard these days about the sugar supply or prices, so quickly does the public become accustomed to meeting price conditions. But the general market is a trifle lower as shown by some of the circulars that the wholesale distributors are issuing. It is safe to guess that there will not be any real slump until after the canning season and its active demand for sugar is past.

Another safe guess is that if an accurate survey were taken of the supply in Morgan county that there is more sugar stored in the homes in the county than ever before at this same time of year. Because of the difficulty of getting a supply the year previous there was many a householder who at least doubled the usual purchase in order to be certain of a supply later on.

Rippling Rhymes By Wait MasonWASTED ENERGY

For many, many weeks to come the orators, brave souls, will knock the wekin out of plumb, and shoot it full of holes. Whenever there's a stump or keg somerower will rise, and talk until he breaks a leg, dispensing truth and lies. The men with messages will spoil the picnic in the dell, and when we'd fain go forth to toil, they'll bind us with a spell. If all their energy and steam were put to sawing wood, high prices soon would be a dream, and prospects would be good. We need strong men to guide the plow and see the pumpkins binned, but all the husky fellows now are busy dishing wind. If every man who speaks a piece would grow some wheat instead, one profiteering graft would cease, and we'd have cheaper bread. If every man who takes the stump, our bulwarks to defend, would grab a hoe and blithely hump, another graft would end. For weeks and weeks the ancient tunes will in our ears be dinned, and when we plead for wholesome prunes, they'll merely hand us wind. The energy that's thrown away by orators, oh, eh! If it were put to baling hay, where would our problems be?

WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN MEXICO PREDICTED

Mexico City, June 26.—Woman suffrage in Mexico in the near future was predicted by Provisional President Adolfo de la Huerta at a conference with the teachers and students of a woman's school here, according to El Demócrata.

The young women who today votes for the directress of her school, tomorrow will vote for her public officers, the provisional president is quoted as having told the delegation, which called on him for permission to select a head for the school in case the present directress was removed.

The request made by the young women showed that Mexico's womanhood is beginning to prepare for the ballot, Señor de la Huerta said. He granted the privilege asked for on condition that the women would choose from a list of three names that he would submit to them.

JAMES M. EPLER DIES IN SEATTLE

Former Resident Passes Away at Age of 83 Years—Was Prominent Member of Morgan County Bar.

Word was received here yesterday of the death of the Hon. James M. Epler which occurred in Seattle, where he has been residing for more than twenty-five years.

Deceased was the son of David Epler and was born in North Prairie, Cass county, June 16, 1837, being at the time of death 83 years of age.

Receiving his early schooling in Cass county, Mr. Epler entered Illinois college and graduated with the class of 1858. He was a member of Phi Alpha and was president of the society in 1857 and 1858. After completing his college course he read law with L. L. Morrison and Cyrus Epler, the latter a cousin. He was admitted to the bar in 1859. It is related that his first case was as attorney for Fred and Charles Hayden which related to a bill for supplies and which he lost.

For many years he was a leading member of the Morgan County bar. He was a splendid pleader and a lawyer of unusual brilliancy.

In 1862 and 1864 he was elected to the legislature and in 1870 was elected senator and served with credit to his district.

Mr. Epler was united in marriage in 1868 to Miss Hannah Taylor of Springfield. They resided here for many years, the family home being at the corner of West College avenue and Westminster streets in the residence now occupied by Dr. A. L. Adams. Mr. Epler built the residence.

He is survived by his widow and one son, James Epler, Jr., and two daughters, all residing in Loveland, Colo., and came to Idaho in 1903. The Jackson Brothers were among the first to develop a home on the Emmett messa, in which "Uncle Charley" took great interest and just pride, leaving one of the best developed farms and most beautiful homes in the Emmett country. Mr. Jackson was a man of quiet and retiring disposition, a great reader and informed on many subjects, a man of sterling worth whose counsel was sought and accepted with confidence, a good citizen and best of all a brother and neighbor beloved of all. He is survived by one brother, James, with whom he has been a business partner and with whom he shared his home for over nineteen years, and three sisters, Mrs. Alice Bradley, of Emmett; Mrs. Charles Hamilton, of Hamilton, Kan., and Mrs. J. B. Higdon, of St. Louis, Mo. The funeral was conducted from the undertaker's parlors in Boise, the Rev. Lloyd Knight, a long time friend of the family officiating, and burial was in Morris Hill cemetery, at Boise. Quite a number of Emmett friends and old neighbors were in attendance. The entire community as well as many friends from many parts of the country will extend sympathy.

"These twenty-six cars will be made to do the work equivalent to 182 cars a week. Of course it depends on the co-operation of the grain shippers along the line as well as the Public Elevator at Peoria.

"At a conference held in Springfield Wednesday all the grain shippers of our line and East Peoria Elevator representatives were present. It was unanimously agreed to give the new venture their hearty support and to load cars at any time of day or night as well as to arrange for the unloading at the East Peoria Elevator.

"This arrangement will insure the taking care of the grain crop along the C. P. & St. L. without question.

"W. C. Hurst,
General Superintendent."

With Fiery Itchings?

Don't Continue to Suffer Because of Wrong Treatment

At last science has determined the real source of all skin diseases, and with this enlightenment comes the reason why the prevailing treatment heretofore used has proven such a complete failure. It has been proven that impurities in the blood cause millions of tiny disease germs to set up their attack on the surface of the skin, and in the form of pimples, boils, scaly eruptions and itchy, burning irritations, begin their disfiguring and destructive work.

Being in the blood, these disease germs can be reached only through the blood, and local ap-

ANNUAL PICNIC AT NORTONVILLE AUG. 3

Preparations Now Being Completed for Annual Event—Other
News Notes From Nortonville and Vicinity.

Nortonville, Ill., July 16.—The annual picnic will be held in the park August 3. There will be plenty of good music and entertainment of all kinds and lots of good things to eat. Everybody is invited to attend.

A number of men gathered at the church Saturday and put in their time cleaning and fixing up the hitch rack.

Mrs. Ross Wagner and little son and Miss Mary Hazelwood of Hillview were visiting at the homes of Mrs. John H. Smith, John Kelly and Curt Kelly last week.

About fifty Rotarians made the trip and returned with renewed and increased enthusiasm for the support of boys work, now accounted about the largest undertaking of the International Rotary organization. The inspection trip to the bay had been arranged before it was known that Mr. Freeman was coming. However, his visit was well timed and certainly in the club house was an appropriate place to tell Rotarians more about the Boy Scout organization.

The club house which Jacksonville Rotarians and a few other citizens have made possible, is located on a beautiful knoll at the east side of the bay, less than a mile distant north of the main business street of Meredosia. The club house adjoins the handsome cottage erected last summer by Vincent Riley and Dr. A. H. Dolear.

Building Details.

The building is 52 by 30 feet in general dimensions and has been planned for the accommodation of 40 persons at one time. It is built on a solid concrete foundation which forms floor of concrete for the first story. This is for the most part in one spacious room. However at the southwest corner there is a convenient kitchen and adjoining it a bed room and office for the superintendent or custodian. It is not the purpose to have a custodian constantly in charge of the property but each group of boys who uses the club house will be under the direction of a guardian or leader and this room will be at his disposal.

A well adjoins the building on the east side and will be so housed that it will be accessible without going outdoors.

The second floor is also in one great room except that at the east side there is a bath room and dressing room and at the west side a lavatory. A water tank placed near the roof and operated with a wind mill will provide the pressure for the plumbing.

Some Marion residents say Mrs. Harding has contributed in important ways to Mr. Harding's success in life.

Mrs. Harding was born here, August 15, 1860 and was reared in this city where she attended grammar and high schools.

As Florence Kling, daughter of Amos Kling, banker and one of the most wealthy men in Marion, she is described by a girlhood friend, Mrs. Margaret Younkens, as "one of the best horsewomen I have ever seen. She rode and drove more like a man than a girl," said Mrs. Younkens, who said she was more accustomed to seeing Florence Kling dashing swiftly up the street on Billy, her saddle horse, than walking with other girls of her social circle. Other girlhood friends of Mrs. Harding told of the times when they used to "pile into Florence's phaeton and ride with perfect confidence" behind her speedy Billy."

Florence Kling was married to Warren G. Harding, then as now newspaper publisher, on July 8, 1891 in their present home in Mount Vernon avenue, Marion. For more than 12 years until illness prevented, Mrs. Harding was circulation manager of the Star, her husband's newspaper. In addition she was the registration bureau for complaints, advertising manager and angel to the newsboys.

When Mrs. Harding returns to Marion and meets any of the boys who carried papers for Senator Harding when she was circulation manager, she puts them on the back, it is said, and remarks: "Here is one of my boys—he will be famous some day."

To Resign Soon.

Announcement was made by Mr. Roosevelt during the day that he would resign his position in the navy department about the first week in August. He said he expected to be formally notified of his nomination about August 7 at his home in Hyde Park, New York. He will spend next Monday and Tuesday with Governor Cox at Columbus attending the sessions of the Democratic national committee. Mr. Roosevelt today characterized as a "good guess" the suggestion that he and Governor Cox would divide the country between them in conducting their campaign.

Dodge—"Whispers," Whispers is a newspaper man who solves a murder mystery in two days with the help of a ready wit and a coincidence or two. Quite a bit about newspaper work and quite a bit of character analysis.

Hay—"The Winning Clue."

Hutton—"Happy House," The heroine is a faded little mother who writes professedly silly novels to support her family. The tide of fortune turns with the writing of a real book.

LeFever—"Simontetta," A good mystery with a quaint Florentine background.

Lincoln—"The Red Seal," Another mystery story in which several people seem logically connected with a murder in Washington, while the letter with a red seal becomes more and more elusive.

Mackenzie—"Poor Relations," An amusing story of a successful playwright in London who is driven to matrimony by his tormenting relations.

Marshall—"Voice of the Pack," Miller—"Charm School," Worts—"Peter the Brazen."

South Vancouver, B. C.—The prevalence of black bears is evoking much criticism in this district. One large black bear visited the thickly settled district between Main and Fraser streets at midnight recently. It killed four ducks and badly mauled several pigs. The squealing of the pigs aroused neighbors and their shouts alarmed the bear. He scrambled out of the pen and ambled away in the darkness. A few days ago a chicken coop was raided by a bear.

SECURE PLACES FOR ALL CITY CHILDREN

Sixty Will Be Cared for in City and County—Committee Feels Grateful for Interest Shown.

Places for the sixty city children to sojourn two weeks have been secured and a few to spare. Generally speaking the solicitors have been kindly received tho occasionally one is a trifle tempted to wonder how some who declined will be able to square it with Him who said "Inasmuch as ye did it to one of the least of them ye did it not to Me." But of course it is not in order for one to judge, another and the committee feels glad the work so far has been accomplished and now the earnest hope is that the whole thing may be a success for if anything in the world is in keeping with the great King's command it is such a thing as this. It is safe to say that in a great majority of cases, while the poor children will be immensely delighted, the entertainers will get more good out of it than the little folks.

For the kindly use of automobiles the committees is indebted to the city police department, Thomas Hopper, L. F. O'Donnell, Mrs. Howard Zahn, Rev. W. E. Spoons, George Wheeler, T. M. Tomlinson, Miss Elva Osborne, daughter of J. E. Osborne. The above named persons enabled the committee to visit the county and smaller cities.

Following is a list of the entertainers and the dates on which the children are to arrive.
